

Our Favorite Things BY MARIA DE LA O

A little pampering can go a long way. Jane and Jane presents a step-by-step guide to the products that could just make your Valentine's Day the best ever.

1 Organic Bouquet

PRICE: $44.95 and up.
WEB: www.organicbouquet.com

What woman doesn't like to be treated with a little old-school chivalry once in a while? Get any Valentine's Day date started right with a hand-picked nosegay from Organic Bouquet for your honey—and get extra p.c. points for making it organic.

2 Artisan Chocolate

PRICE: Prices vary.
WEB: www.hedonistchocolates.com

Throw in a little chocolate to go with those flowers, and you can't lose. Made by two women in Rochester, New York, partners in both chocolate-making and in life, Hedonist Artisan Chocolates are made with love (and lots of other yummy things). Chocolate truffles, chocolate dipped fruit and drinking chocolate—it's all good.

3 Couples Bath Caddy

PRICE: $59.95
WEB: www.redenvelope.com

Nothing relaxes like a bubble bath for two. Go ahead—take a luxurious soak and hang the do-not-disturb sign on the door. The bamboo Couples Bath Caddy can hold everything from chocolate to soaps and scrubs to a couple of glasses of Champagne.

Towel Warmer and Turkish Towels

PRICE: $44.99–$159.99 for the warmer; $28 for the towel and $48 for the sheet

WEB: www.skymall.com and www.restorationhardware.com

Step out of the bath and wrap yourself in warmth. The Wonderbar Towel Warmer hangs directly on an existing towel rack and plugs into any standard outlet. Atop the warmer, The Ultimate Turkish Towel measures 30 inches by 56 inches, and at 802 grams of cotton per square meter, they are incredibly soft and thick. (For even more luxury, try the bath sheet, measuring 40 inches by 70 inches.)

6 Handmade Down Duvet

PRICE: $169–$469
WEB: www.featheredfriends.com

Fall into bed and snuggle under a luxurious custom-made comforter, made in Seattle of premium domestic goose down by Feathered Friends. The Pima cotton shell covers are made with channels, baffles or sewn-through construction, depending on your needs—light to Arctic.
